

I think it's silly to limit competition in the radio market. I have given up listening to traditional AM/FM radio, and now solely rely on XM Satellite Radio. This is a private service that I pay for, and the National Association of Broadcasters should not dictate what I can and can't listen to. Please reject NAB's petition 04-160 and support satellite radio. Thank you.